
Means over the same 180 phases. Dashed curves remove within-slot sensor staggering.
Dotted curves also remove finite-array field/gradient approximation. Nominal timing model.